

Lieutenant Colonel Mark S. Ochoa

Deputy Commander for Clinical Services
Irwin Army Community Hospital
Fort Riley, KS

LTC Mark Ochoa graduated from the University of Colorado, in 1993, earning a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Environmental, Population and Organismic Biology. Thereafter, he was employed by NAPRO Pharmaceuticals in the production of Taxol a chemotherapy medication. He then attended medical school at the Uniformed Services University, graduating with a Doctor of Medicine in 1998. He completed his internship and residency at the National Capital Consortium, at Washington D.C. specializing in Obstetrics and Gynecology.

LTC Ochoa is a graduate of the AMEDD Officer Basic and the Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

LTC Ochoa's past assignments include Chief, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Irwin Army Community Hospital, Fort Riley, KS; Battalion Surgeon for 113th Armor, Baghdad Iraq; Brigade Surgeon for 1st SB, Arifjan Kuwait and Division Surgeon for 1st ID with deployment to Bagram Afghanistan. He is currently the Deputy Commander for Clinical Services, Irwin Army Community Hospital, Fort Riley, KS.

LTC Ochoa's awards and decorations include the Bronze Star, the Meritorious Service Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters, the Army Commendation Medal with 1 Oak Leaf Cluster, Army Achievement Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters, National Defense Service Medal, Afghanistan Campaign Medal, Iraqi Campaign Medal with two Oak Leaf Clusters, Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Army Service Ribbon, Overseas Service Ribbon and NATO Medal.